Madison Square Park Conservancy x Ballet Tech

WELCOME TO MADISON SQUARE PARK

Madison Square Park Conservancy and Ballet Tech are proud to partner and bring to our park a dynamic performance in conjunction with Ana Maria Hernando's To Let the Sky Know/ Deja que el cielo sepa.

Alumni from Ballet Tech (the New York City Public School for Dance) will perform a newly choreographed work underneath the bright cluster of clouds located on the Oval Lawn.

These three, ten-minute performances will take place at 5, 5:30, & 6 PM.

ABOUT MADISON SQUARE PARK CONSERVANCY

Madison Square Park Conservancy is the not-for-profit organization whose mission is to protect, nurture, and enhance Madison Square Park, a dynamic 6.2-acre public green space, to create an environment that fosters moments of inspiration. The Conservancy is committed to engaging the community through its dynamic public art program, beautiful gardens, inviting amenities, and programming. Madison Square Park Conservancy is licensed by the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation to manage Madison Square Park and is responsible for raising 100% of the funds necessary to operate the park.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Madison Square Park is located on Lenapehoking, the ancestral homeland of The Lenape (Delaware) people. We recognize that this land was forcibly taken, resulting in the displacement and genocide of the Lenape (Delaware) Nations. The Conservancy honors the Lenape (Delaware) people, the original stewards of this land, through our commitment to a series of sustainability and restoration initiatives.
